WALT DISNEY WORLD

Overview ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

Walt Disney World Resort opened its gates on October 1st, 1971, in Orlando, Florida. The brainchild of Walt Disney, this entertainment complex spans nearly 25,000 acres.

Initially, the resort featured only Magic Kingdom and three hotels: Disney's Contemporary Resort, Disney's Polynesian Village Resort, and Disney's Fort Wilderness Resort & Campground. Over the years, Walt Disney World has expanded significantly. EPCOT opened in 1982, followed by Disney's Hollywood Studios in 1989, and Disney's Animal Kingdom in 1998.

Today, the resort boasts four theme parks, two water parks, and over 25 Disney-owned hotels. It also includes Disney Springs, a shopping and dining district.

So, if you're planning a trip to the most magical place on earth for the first time, it could feel a bit overwhelming. That's why we're here to help. In this ultimate guide to planning your Disney World vacation, we'll walk you through all the steps involved from the early planning process to how to optimize your time in the parks and everything in between.

THEME PARKS ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦ ✦

Each of Disney's four theme parks offers unique experiences and attractions. These parks cater to different interests and age groups, ensuring there's something for everyone in your family.

MAGIC KINGDOM

Magic Kingdom is the heart of Walt Disney World. Here, you'll find iconic attractions like Space Mountain, Haunted Mansion, and Pirates of the Caribbean. And, of course, Cinderella Castle serves as the park's centerpiece.

The park has five themed areas that include rides and shows to fill your day including Adventureland, Frontierland, Liberty Square, Fantasyland, and Tomorrowland. And, Main Street, U.S.A. is where you'll find shops and get the best view of daily parades and fireworks shows.

EPCOT

EPCOT combines futuristic innovation with global culture. This park has undergone the most changes over the past five years and is divided into four main sections: World Celebration, World Discovery, World Nature, and World Showcase. The first three feature some of the most iconic EPCOT rides including Test Track, Soarin' Around the World, and Mission: SPACE. World Showcase features 11 pavilions that each represent a different country where you can enjoy authentic cuisine, shop for unique souvenirs, and view cultural performances.

EPCOT also hosts several festivals throughout the year, including the Festival of the Arts, Food & Wine Festival, Festival of the Holidays, and Flower & Garden Festival.

DISNEY'S HOLLYWOOD STUDIOS

This park celebrates the magic of movies and television. You'll find thrilling attractions and immersive experiences based on popular franchises including Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge where you can live out your own Star Wars adventure and Toy Story Land where you'll shrink to toy size in Andy's backyard.

DISNEY'S ANIMAL KINGDOM

Animal Kingdom blends conservation and wildlife encounters with thrilling attractions. The park is divided into themed lands that represent certain regions of the world including Asia and Africa and some other fictional lands like Pandora – The World of Avatar.

Overall, the park offers a nice balance of relaxing nature trails where you can see wildlife up close and thrilling rides like Expedition Everest and Flight of Passage in Pandora – The World of Avatar. You can also enjoy live shows that recreate beloved Disney movies like Festival of the Lion King and Finding Nemo: The Big Blue... and Beyond!

BEYOND THE PARKS ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

Walt Disney World also offers numerous attractions and activities outside its main theme parks. These areas provide more entertainment, dining, and recreation options for anyone who wants to escape the park crowds and enjoy more of that Disney magic.

DISNEY SPRINGS

Disney Springs is a massive shopping, dining, and entertainment district. You'll find over 150 shops, from popular brands to Disney-themed boutiques. Plus, dining options range from casual eateries to upscale restaurants owned by celebrity chefs. And, the best part is that it's completely free to visit!

WATER PARKS

Disney World boasts two unique water parks: Typhoon Lagoon and Blizzard Beach. Typhoon Lagoon features a tropical theme with fun family-friendly attractions like the Crush 'n' Gusher water coaster and the Typhoon Lagoon Surf Pool (which is one of the largest wave pools in the U.S.).

Blizzard Beach, on the other hand, features a ski resort-themed experience. You can race down Mount Gushmore on Summit Plummet (one of the world's tallest and fastest free-fall body slides). Or, for a more relaxing time, float along Cross Country Creek, the park's lazy river.

Both parks offer children's areas, dining options, and private cabana rentals providing refreshing alternatives to the main theme parks on hot Florida days.

DECIDE ON A Budget ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

If all that sounds like the best vacation ever, then it's time to start planning! When planning a trip to Disney World, it's important to determine how much you want to spend. Your budget is going to be the biggest factor in shaping your Disney vacation.

Your budget will dictate how long you can visit, where you'll stay, and if you'll purchase other upgrades. The biggest expenses of a Disney trip include travel, theme park tickets, hotel stays, food, and optional add-ons. And, with 25 hotels, 200+ restaurants, and numerous customization options, determining the exact cost can be tricky. Luckily, there are easy ways to calculate the cost before booking.

TRAVEL COSTS

First, you need to decide how you're getting to Disney World! Travel costs can vary a lot depending on whether you're flying, driving, or renting a car. On average, here's how much to plan for each:

- Airplane Ticket: $150 to $500 per person round trip
- Car Rental: $49 to $78 per day for an economy car
- Gas and Tolls: $3.59 per gallon and 6 cents per mile

TICKET PRICES

Disney World park tickets make up a huge chunk of your vacation budget. Currently, there are six different ticket options available. Here's a breakdown of how much tickets cost in 2025:

- One-Day One-Park Ticket: $119 to $189 per person
- Park Hopper: $198 to $256 per person, per day
- Park Hopper Plus Ticket: $218 to $276 per person, per day
- Disney World Water Parks: $69 per person
- Annual Passes: $469 to $1,549 per person, per year depending on the pass
- Multi-Day Tickets: You can purchase multi-day tickets if you plan to visit for 3 or more days, which will save you about $20 per person, per day

It's also important to note that ticket prices are dynamic, fluctuating based on when you decide to visit.

HOTEL COSTS

Disney World Resort hotels are divided into three categories: Value, Moderate, and Deluxe. Each category offers different amenities and price points. Here's how much you can expect to pay for a resort stay in each category.

- Value Resorts: starting at around $110 per night
- Moderate Resorts: starting at around $250 per night
- Deluxe Resorts: starting at around $430 per night

Disney Vacation Club Villas are also available for current Disney Vacation Club members or vacationers who are looking for a bit more space. These resorts feature two-bedroom, three-bedroom, and large suite options that can sleep up to 9 people in one room. However, these are much more expensive with prices ranging from $600 to $5,000 per night.

Note that resort fees may also be applied to some Disney hotel stays depending on where you stay. These add an additional $15 to $45 per night to your bill.

FOOD COSTS

Disney World has multiple different dining options throughout the parks and resorts. This includes quick service restaurants (which are considered the most budget-friendly meal option), table service restaurants (which are the most expensive dining options), and snacks. Here's how much you should budget for each:

- Quick service restaurants: $10-$15 per adult
- Table service restaurants: $15-$60 per person
- Snacks: $3-$15 per person

If you prefer to pre-pay for your meals during your vacation, you can opt to add a Disney Dining Plan to your vacation package. There are multiple levels of the Disney Dining Plan available ranging in price from $57 to $95 per adult, per day and from $23 to $30 per child (ages 3 to 9), per day. We recommend researching where and what you plan to eat to help you decide if a dining plan is worth the cost for you and your family.

OPTIONAL ADD-ONS

Once you've decided on the basics, there are a lot of ways to customize your Disney World vacation and make your experience even more special. But, they'll cost you! From tours to special events to skipping the long lines at popular attractions, here are some of the extra costs you may want to include in your vacation budget:

- Special Events: $99 to $200 per person
- Specialty Dining Packages: $100+ per person
- Behind-The-Scenes Tours: $20-$275 per person
- Private VIP Tours: $450 to $900 per hour
- Lightning Lane Multi Pass: $15-$35 per person, per day
- Lightning Lane Single Pass: $12-$25 per person, per attraction
- Lightning Lane Premier Pass: $129-$449 per person, per day
- Merchandise & Experiences: $100-$250 per person

SO, HOW MUCH DOES A DISNEY WORLD VACATION REALLY COST?

Based on average vacation costs and accounting for inevitable extras, we recommend that a family of four budget approximately $5,000 to $6,500 for a 4-night, 5-day Disney World vacation. A family of 3 should budget between $4,000 to $5,000. And, two adults should budget $2,500 to $3,500 for a 4-night, 5-day trip. Of course, if you plan to stay for a week or longer, you'll likely need to double these costs.

On the next page you'll find a Disney Vacation Budget Worksheet

- Visit during the off-season (January, February, August, and September) when prices are lower.
- Invest in multi-day passes.
- Check for seasonal ticket discounts on Disney's website before booking.
- Don't park hop and opt for one-park, one-day tickets.
- Consider purchasing an annual pass if you're visiting for 10+ days in one year.

Our Expert Tips and Tricks to Save Money on Your Disney World Vacation

HOTEL STAY

Your hotel stay is one of the easiest opportunities for saving on your Disney trip. Here are three simple ways to save!

- Check for special offers and discounts before booking. Contact Disney if a deal becomes available after you've already booked to see if they can apply it to your stay!
- Visit during the off-season (January, February, August, and September) when rates are lower.
- Consider staying off-site at nearby hotels or at least in an onsite Value Resort instead of a Deluxe Resort.

FOOD

The cost of food can add up quickly! But, with a little bit of planning and some smart choices, you can save money on everything you eat during your visit too.

- Check for vacation package offers that include savings on the Disney Dining Plan or Disney Dining Card promotions.
- Portion sizes at Disney World are big! Consider sharing meals with your family or purchasing a kids' meal from quick service restaurants.
- Don't overbook table service restaurants. We recommend opting for one dining reservation per day or less.
- Have groceries delivered to your hotel.

MORE WAYS TO SAVE

There are a few more simple ways to save on your Disney vacation that you may not know about! Keep these in mind when you're budgeting to save on things like merchandise and more:

- Purchase Disney gift cards for less at Sam's Club and Target. Target Red Card members can save 5% off Disney gift cards and Sam's Club offers some discounts for members as well.
- Avoid the overpriced merchandise and purchase souvenirs for the kids before your vacation at stores like Target, the Disney Store, Amazon, or Hot Topic.

DECIDE WHEN You Want to Visit ✨ ✨ ✨

There's never a wrong time to visit Walt Disney World, but nailing down your vacation dates can be a challenge. How many days should you visit? Should you brave the crowds for the chance to experience the parks during the holidays? What about the weather? These are only a few questions that will likely run through your mind when you're deciding when to visit. Luckily, narrowing down your options is a lot easier when you have an idea of the best and worst times to visit and know about all the special events in Disney World throughout the year!

HOW LONG DO YOU REALLY NEED?

With four theme parks, two water parks, Disney Springs, and more, it's easy to get overwhelmed when you're trying to decide how long you need to do it all. There's no right or wrong answer to how long your Disney World vacation should be – it's about determining what YOU want to see and do and then making sure you've got enough time to do all those things on your list!

Here are 5 things to consider when determining how long your Disney trip should be:

1. What is your budget? Shorter trips are best for smaller budgets. Whereas, the larger your budget, the more you can do and the more time you'll need.
2. Who are you traveling with? Two adults can do the parks much more efficiently than a party of 10+ for a family reunion.
3. When are you traveling? If you're traveling when crowd levels are higher, you may need more time in the parks to do everything you want.
4. What parks do you want to visit? Sit down and write out the parks you want to visit so that you can start making a rough itinerary.
5. Do you plan to park hop? This can help you do more in fewer days. Though, it does cost more.

And, the question that we always get when it comes to determining the length of your trip – how many days do you need in each Disney World theme park? Here's our recommendation:

Magic Kingdom	1-2 days
EPCOT	1-2 days
Disney's Hollywood Studios	1 day
Disney's Animal Kingdom	1 day
Disney Springs and Other Disney World Attractions	0.5-1 day

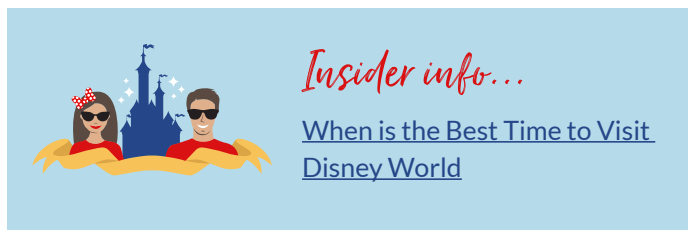

In general, we recommend that first-time Disney goers plan to stay at least 5-7 days. This gives you enough time to go to all four theme parks, enjoy a few table service restaurants, visit Disney Springs, and relax at your hotel at a pace that makes it feel like you're actually on vacation. Of course, it's totally doable to visit Disney World for much shorter...or even much longer and still have a great trip. So, sit down with your family and determine what exactly it is you want to do – this will give you a good idea of the right trip length for you!

BEST TIMES

The “best” times to visit Disney World can vary from family to family based on what you’re looking to accomplish during your trip. Whether it’s avoiding the crowds, enjoying great weather, getting the best prices, or experiencing Disney’s special events, determining the best time to visit depends on what’s important to you. Here’s when we recommend visiting based on your priorities:

- Best time to visit Disney World to avoid crowds:
January, February, late August, and September
- Best time to visit Disney World for the best weather:
December, January, and February
- Cheapest times to visit Disney World:
January, February, August, and September
- Best time to visit for special events:
August, September, October, November, December

WORST TIMES

You’re spending a lot on a Disney World vacation, so you may not want to visit when the parks are at near capacity. In general, we recommend avoiding traveling over Spring Break (late March through April), summer vacation (late May through mid-August), and the holiday season (the week of Thanksgiving through New Year’s Day) if you want to avoid the highest crowd levels in the parks and resorts. Because of the high demand and large number of travelers, these are also the most expensive times to visit Disney World.

The weather can also play a huge role in making (or breaking) your Disney vacation. So, we recommend avoiding the hottest months of the year (June to August) and hurricane season (June 1st to November 30th) if you want to ensure that your trip isn’t impacted by severe weather.

And, be sure to check Disney’s refurbishment calendar and special events calendar before you pick your travel dates! This will help you avoid any major disappointments when you arrive.

Of course, the worst times to visit can also be the best times to visit because of the special events and extra celebrations happening during these times. So, if you do want to travel during these times, just adjust your expectations and budget accordingly.

EPCOT INTERNATIONAL FOOD & WINE FESTIVAL

The EPCOT International Food & Wine Festival features food and wine from across the globe. It has the largest number of food booths of any EPCOT festival along with plenty of other activities to attend between bites including culinary demonstrations, a scavenger hunt, and a concert series.

- Seminars and demonstrations that cover topics such as wine tasting, mixology, and cooking. These events are led by industry professionals and are a fun way to learn something new.

The festival usually runs from August to late November, giving you a little over three months to experience all the offerings.

EPCOT INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF THE HOLIDAYS

The International Festival of the Holidays celebrates the traditions and cultures of the holiday season around the globe and features holiday-themed entertainment, holiday ride overlays, a special retelling of the Christmas story by celebrity narrators, and – of course – tons of holiday food and drink at Holiday Kitchens around World Showcase.

Highlights of this festival include:

- Several Holiday Kitchens around World Showcase offer menus full of small bites and sips that are inspired by holiday traditions from around the world.

Here's How to Plan the Perfect Disney World Christmas Vacation

DECIDE WHERE You Want to Stay ✨ ✨ ✨

Now that you've hopefully wrapped your head around all the seasonal happenings and picked YOUR perfect time to visit Disney World, it's time to book your hotel stay! You'll first need to decide if you want to stay on-site at a Disney Resort hotel or off-site at a nearby hotel. Then, if you are choosing to stay at a Disney hotel, you'll need to determine what hotel best fits your needs and budget. Let's dive deeper into these considerations.

STAYING ONSITE VS. OFF-SITE

With more than 25 Disney World Resort hotels to choose from, PLUS even more off-site hotels near the parks, it can be hard to decide which is best for you and your family. It's important to consider the pros and the cons of each option before making a reservation.

WHY STAY ON-SITE

When staying at a Disney Resort hotel, you're not just paying to be close to the parks and staying in a Disney-themed room — there are other perks too! And, they can make a big difference in your Disney vacation! Here are the biggest benefits of staying on-site at a Walt Disney World Resort hotel during your stay:

✨ Complimentary Transportation

All of the Disney hotels provide free bus transportation to all four Disney Parks, Disney Springs, and the water parks. So, you don't have to worry about navigating the roads or traffic throughout your stay. Select resorts also offer other ways to get to the parks like the monorail, Disney Skyliner, or boat. Check Disney's website before you book to see what transportation options are available at your hotel.

✨ Complimentary Theme Park Parking

The cost of parking at the theme parks (and your hotel!) is included in your Disney resort stay.

Insider info...

Pros and Cons of Staying at a Disney Resort

✦ Early Theme Park Entry

Early Theme Park Entry replaced Extra Magic Hours in 2021 and allows guests staying at any Walt Disney World Resort hotel to enter any of the four theme parks 30 minutes before the park opens every day.

✦ Extended Evening Theme Park Hours (At Select Disney World Hotels Only)

Extended Evening Theme Park Hours function similar to Extra Magic Hours in that hotel guests can stay an extra 2 hours in certain parks on select days of the week. However, you must be staying at a Disney World Deluxe Resort or Villa to qualify for this perk.

✦ Early Access to Lightning Lane Multi Pass and Single Pass Selections

Disney hotel guests are a step ahead of everyone else when it comes to securing the best Lightning Lane attractions and return windows. When staying at a Disney hotel you can make Lightning Lane selections up to 7 days prior to your check-in date for the entire length of your stay. In contrast, those staying off-site can make selections 3 days before their theme park visit.

✦ Early Access to Dining Reservations

Currently, Disney resort guests can make reservations up to 60 days in advance PLUS the length of their stay (for up to a 10-night stay). This can give you a big advantage when it comes to securing reservations at the most popular restaurants in Disney World.

✦ Option To Add a Disney Dining Plan

There is also an option to add a Disney Dining Plan to your reservation, which could save you some money and offer convenience. When you book your hotel stay, you'll be able to choose from two different dining plans, each including a different number of quick service, table service, and snack credits per person, per day.

✦ Early Access to Disney Event Tickets

If you're visiting Disney World when special events are happening like Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party and Mickey's Very Merry Christmas Party, Disney makes it easy to ensure that you get a ticket by opening up the purchasing window early for guests with confirmed hotel reservations.

✦ Discounted MagicBands

MagicBands act as your park ticket, room key, credit card, and you can even use them to scan into any Lightning Lane reservations you are holding. As a Disney Resort guest you can purchase a MagicBand or MagicBand+ for everyone in your travel party at a discount prior to your trip. Of note, MagicBands are not required but do offer some convenience.

✦ Free Water Park Admission on Your Check-In Day (COMING IN 2025!)

Beginning January 1st, 2025, all guests staying at any Disney World Resort hotel get free admission to the Disney water parks on their check in day.

WHY STAY OFF-SITE

While there are many benefits to staying at a Disney World Resort, there are also some downsides to consider before booking your stay. Here are the biggest benefits of staying off-site at a hotel near Walt Disney World:

✦ Affordability

While not directly on Disney property in most cases, off-site non-Disney-owned hotels are often more affordable and offer similar guest benefits.

✦ Larger Rooms and More Room Size Options

If you're traveling with a large family or group, you may find that the rooms at Disney World Resorts are a little too small for comfort. Off-site hotels, on the other hand, tend to have large guest rooms for the price.

✦ Access To Other Central Florida Attractions

Many off-site hotels offer complimentary transportation to Disney World and other Orlando attractions like SeaWorld and Universal Orlando, while Disney hotels do not provide transportation to other locations.

✦ Disney Resort Guest Perks (At Participating Hotels Only)

Note that select off-site hotels also offer Disney hotel guest benefits like access to Early Theme Park Entry, Extended Evening Theme Park Hours, and complimentary theme park transportation.

Here are a few of the current participating hotels:

- Walt Disney World Dolphin Hotel
- Walt Disney World Swan Hotel
- Walt Disney World Swan Reserve
- DoubleTree Suites by Hilton Orlando
- Drury Plaza Hotel Orlando Lake Buena Vista
- Four Seasons Resort Orlando
- Hilton Orlando Buena Vista Palace
- Hilton Orlando Lake Buena Vista
- Holiday Inn Orlando
- Renaissance Orlando Resort and Spa
- Shades of Green on Walt Disney World Resort
- Signia by Hilton Orlando Bonnet Creek
- Waldorf Astoria Orlando
- Wyndham Garden Lake Buena Vista
- Wyndham Lake Buena Vista

Of course, this list is subject to change. Be sure to check your hotel's website or call to confirm what guest benefits are offered before you book.

DELUXE VS. MODERATE VS. VALUE HOTELS

We're going to assume that you've decided to stay on Disney property. So, now it's time to decide exactly where you'll stay.

Disney World Resort hotels are split up into three different categories – Deluxe Resorts, Moderate Resorts, and Value Resorts. Deluxe Resorts are Disney's luxury hotels with the most amenities and ideal locations, Value Resorts are the cheapest hotels with fewer amenities, and Moderate Resorts fall somewhere in the middle. Here's what you need to know about each category to help you determine which is best for you.

VALUE RESORTS

Value Resorts are the cheapest hotels available on Disney property ranking from $100-$400+ per night. These hotels offer a great balance between price and quality, making them ideal for families or travelers on a budget.

Currently, there are five different Value Resorts at Walt Disney World including:

- Disney's Pop Century Resort
- Disney's All-Star Movies Resort
- Disney's All-Star Music Resort
- Disney's All-Star Sports Resort
- Disney's Art of Animation Resort

Each hotel features larger-than-life Disney theming, multiple pools, a food court that opens for breakfast, lunch, and dinner, free theme park transportation, a gift shop, and resort activities. While the rooms are the smallest out of all the Disney hotels, they're still spacious enough for a family of four with standard rooms featuring two queen-sized beds or a king bed based on your preferences. Select resorts also offer family-suite options that sleep up to six adults.

MODERATE RESORTS

Moderate Resorts are great for those looking to stay somewhere that offers a greater number of amenities without breaking the bank. The cost of the Moderate Resorts ranges from $260 to $475+ per night.

Currently, there are four Moderate Resorts in Disney World including:

- Disney's Caribbean Beach Resort
- Disney's Port Orleans Resort – Riverside
- Disney's Port Orleans Resort – French Quarter
- Disney's Coronado Springs Resort (including Gran Destino Tower)

Each hotel has its own unique theming and atmosphere along with additional dining options compared to Value Resorts, multiple pools with water slides, recreation activities, and a greater variety of transportation options to theme parks. The standard rooms are also larger and often feature a 5th sleeper for larger families.

Here's How to Pick the Best Disney World Moderate Resort

DELUXE RESORTS

Deluxe Resorts are the most luxurious hotels at Disney World providing an unforgettable experience during your stay. These resorts offer the highest level of comfort, convenience, and entertainment, and they tend to be located closest to the theme parks. But, luxury does come at a cost with prices beginning around $500 per night and exceeding over $1,000+ per night depending on where you stay.

Currently, Disney World has ten Deluxe Resorts including:

- Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa
- Disney's Polynesian Village Resort
- Disney's Contemporary Resort
- Disney's Wilderness Lodge
- Disney's Yacht Club
- Disney's Beach Club
- Disney's BoardWalk Inn
- Disney's Animal Kingdom Lodge
- Walt Disney World Swan & Dolphin Hotel*
- Walt Disney World Swan Reserve*

*Note that Walt Disney World Swan & Dolphin Hotel and Swan Reserve are considered off-site hotels and are operated by Marriott. Due to this, some Disney Deluxe Resort guest benefits are not available here.

When it comes to amenities, these hotels offer the most including multiple dining options (usually a quick service restaurant, multiple table service restaurants, and lounges), full-service spas, high-end shopping, and more. The standard room size is also the largest out of all the Disney hotels and many of them also offer Deluxe Villas that are part of the Disney Vacation Club and include one-, two-, and three-bedroom villas that come with a full kitchen and washer and dryer.

DISNEY VACATION CLUB RESORTS

Disney Vacation Club (DVC) Resorts are part of Disney's timeshare program, allowing members to stay at top-tier accommodations while enjoying extra amenities that cater to extended stays and family comfort. BOOK YOUR Vacation Package

Now that you have your travel dates nailed down and know where you want to stay, it's time to book your vacation! While hotel stays and tickets can be purchased separately on Disney's website, most Disney-goers choose to book a Walt Disney World vacation package. The vacation package includes your hotel stay, park tickets, and the option to add a Disney Dining Plan to your reservation. And, because everything is booked at once, you have the best chance of getting the best deal on your Disney vacation. Here's everything you should know before you book your WDW vacation package!

WHEN TO BOOK

While it's certainly possible to plan a last-minute Disney trip, we recommend booking your vacation (or at least starting the planning process) 6 to 12 months in advance. This will give you enough time to research and make informed decisions about your trip, as well as secure the hotel, tickets, and dining reservations that you prefer.

At the very least, aim to have your plans solidified and tickets purchased 60 days in advance so you don't miss out on popular dining reservations when the booking window opens.

CONSIDER USING A TRAVEL ADVISOR

If you're a first-timer or simply overwhelmed by the planning process, consider having a travel agent help you plan your trip. They can help you navigate all the Disney ticket options, hotel reservations, and dining reservations. Plus, they can provide insider tips and tricks to make your trip as magical as possible at no cost to you!

We recommend working with our preferred travel partners at Mouse Fan Travel. They'll handle the hassles of planning so you can have a stress-free vacation!

DECIDE IF YOU WANT TO ADD A DINING PLAN TO YOUR TRIP

One of the biggest benefits of booking a Walt Disney World vacation package is the option to add on a Disney Dining Plan. These allow you to prepay for meals and snacks for the entirety of your Walt Disney World vacation so that you don't have to worry about sticking to a dining budget during your trip – everything is already paid for in advance!

There are currently two different dining plans to choose from including the Disney Dining Plan and the Quick Service Dining Plan. Each one comes with a certain number of meal and snack credits that can be used at select Disney World restaurants.

DECIDE WHAT TICKET TYPE YOU WANT TO PURCHASE

Deciding on Disney park tickets can be complicated! Currently, there are three main ticket types available for guests and each has its pros and cons. Your budget and vacation plans will help determine which theme park tickets are best for you. Here's an overview of each ticket and why it may (or may not) be best for you:

ONE-DAY ONE-PARK TICKET

Disney's one-day one-park tickets are the cheapest ticket option in Disney World. They provide admission to one park per day allowing you to choose from Magic Kingdom, EPCOT, Disney's Hollywood Studios, or Disney's Animal Kingdom.

Cost: $119-$189 per person, per day

Purchase One-Day One-Park Tickets If:

- You're looking for the best deal on theme park tickets.
- You plan to visit only one park per day.
- You're traveling for 4-6 days and want to visit all four theme parks.

PARK HOPPER

Park Hopper tickets allow you to visit multiple parks in one day including Magic Kingdom, EPCOT, Disney's Hollywood Studios, and Disney's Animal Kingdom. You could visit two, three, or even all four parks in one day at your leisure.

Cost: $198-$256 per person, per day

Purchase Park Hopper Tickets If:

- You want to visit more than one park per day.
- You enjoy the flexibility of being able to go to any park you want when you want.
- You're traveling for 2-3 days but still want to visit all four theme parks.

PARK HOPPER PLUS

The Park Hopper Plus ticket combines the benefits of the Park Hopper ticket with the ability to do even more in Disney World. With this option, you can visit multiple parks in one day and also visit one of the following per day:

- Disney's Typhoon Lagoon Water Park
- Disney's Blizzard Beach Water Park
- ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex
- Disney's Oak Trail Golf Course
- FootGolf at Disney's Oak Trail
- Disney's Fantasia Gardens Miniature Golf Course (one round; prior to 4:00 PM)
- Disney's Winter Summerland Miniature Golf Course (one round; prior to 4:00 PM)

Cost: $218-$276 per person, per day

Purchase Park Hopper Plus Tickets If:

- You want to visit more than one park per day.
- You enjoy the flexibility of being able to go to any park you want when you want.
- You want to visit Disney's water parks, golf, or play miniature golf.
- You're staying for 5-7+ days and want to take advantage of activities beyond the four main theme parks.

DECIDE WHERE You Want to Eat ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

If you're planning a trip to Disney World, you're in for a treat when it comes to dining experiences. With over 200 restaurants across the massive resort, there is something for everyone, even the pickiest eaters!

Currently, there are two different types of dining experiences in Disney World – table service restaurants and quick service restaurants.

Table Service restaurants at Disney World offer a sit-down dining experience where a server will take your order and bring your food to you. These restaurants range from casual to fine dining, and some even offer character dining experiences. Reservations are highly recommended.

Quick Service restaurants, on the other hand, offer a fast and convenient dining experience where you order your food at a counter and then find a seat to enjoy your meal. These restaurants range from grab-and-go options to more substantial meals and can be found throughout the parks and resorts.

It can be hard to decide where and what to eat when you're visiting. So, we highlight below some of the best restaurants to prioritize, some that you might want to skip, and all the new options that have recently opened at Walt Disney World.

RESTAURANTS TO AVOID IN DISNEY WORLD

While you really can't go wrong eating anywhere in Disney World, not all restaurants are created equal! These are the restaurants that long-time Disney fans often skip.

MAGIC KINGDOM

✦ Cosmic Ray's Starlight Cafe: Worst Quick Service Restaurant

The menu is pretty underwhelming here with standard American fare like burgers, hot dogs, and chicken available. But perhaps the biggest issue with Cosmic Ray's are the crowds.

✦ Jungle Navigation Co. LTD Skipper Canteen: Worst for Picky Eaters

Sticking with the Jungle Cruise "adventure" theme that this table service restaurant is known for, the menu is full of adventurous eats. There are a couple of more approachable menu items, but the options are far more limited compared to other restaurants in Magic Kingdom.

✦ Coral Reef: Worst Table Service Restaurant

The menu at Coral Reef is limited, and the seafood dishes don't typically wow guests. The food is generally pretty pricey, and the quality just doesn't live up to the price.

✦ Lotus Blossom Cafe: Worst Quick Service Restaurant

The Americanized Chinese food here just isn't that great and there's not much on the menu to select. It can also be hard to find seating near the restaurant.

DISNEY'S HOLLYWOOD STUDIOS

✦ Mama Melrose's Ristorante Italiano: Worst Table Service Restaurant

While the restaurant has a unique theme and decent food, the service can be hit or miss, and the high prices don't quite match the quality of the food.

✦ 50's Prime Time Cafe: Worst for Introverts

The restaurant's theme revolves around a 1950s living room. And, the servers play the role of your mom, dad, aunt, or uncle. They will ask you to eat your veggies, clean your plate, and behave -- which can spell disaster for you if you're an introvert.

DISNEY'S ANIMAL KINGDOM

✦ Rainforest Cafe: Worst Table Service Restaurant

While the thought of eating here might sound convenient if you're a fan of the restaurant (which has many locations across the globe), it doesn't offer the unique experience that you might be looking for at Disney World.

✦ Restaurantosaurus: Worst for People Who Don't Like Theme Park Food

The food at this dinosaur-themed eatery is mostly standard American fast food. There's no specific twist, and it's not particularly tasty or memorable.

NEW DISNEY RESTAURANTS

◆ Roundup Rodeo BBQ

Toy Story Land at Disney's Hollywood Studios welcomed Roundup Rodeo BBQ, a family-style table service restaurant that shrinks you to toy-size and transports you to Andy's backyard, complete with toy-sized decor and Western-themed elements.

The menu features classic barbecue dishes with a playful twist. You'll find options like ribs, brisket, and chicken, along with sides like mac and cheese and corn on the cob. Vegetarian options are also available.

◆ Shiki-Sai: Sushi Izakaya

Shiki-Sai: Sushi Izakaya is a new table-service restaurant in EPCOT's Japan pavilion. This fine dining experience combines traditional Japanese cuisine with a modern twist. The menu showcases a variety of sushi rolls, sashimi, and izakaya-style small plates. Sake pairings and Japanese-inspired cocktails are also available.

◆ Summer House on the Lake

Summer House on the Lake is a new California-inspired table service restaurant at Disney Springs. The bright, airy space features beach house-style decor, creating a relaxed coastal vibe, and the food compliments the space. The menu focuses on fresh, seasonal ingredients with a West Coast influence. You'll find options like wood-fired pizzas, salads, and seafood dishes.

Summer House on the Lake also includes a grab-and-go market called The Cookie Jar where you can find some of the best cookies on Disney property.

◆ EET by Maneet Chauhan

Celebrity chef Maneet Chauhan brings her culinary expertise to Disney Springs with EET. This fast-casual concept offers an Indian street food-inspired menu with dishes like tandoori-spiced chicken, naan wraps, and salads.

◆ Ice Cold Hydraulics

Disney's Hollywood Studios recently added a new spot in the Muppets-themed area called Ice Cold Hydraulics. You can stop here for small bites including candy painted cinnamon rolls and mini churros.

◆ Blue Ribbon Corn Dogs

A taste of the West Coast has arrived at Disney's BoardWalk with the addition of Blue Ribbon Corn Dogs. This grab-and-go eatery specializes in gourmet corn dogs and related snacks. The menu offers classic corn dogs alongside some more unique offerings like cheese-stuffed dogs, a pickle corn dog, and intriguing batter flavors.

◆ The Cake Bake Shop by Gwendolyn Rogers

The Cake Bake Shop by Gwendolyn Rogers brings its whimsical charm to Disney's BoardWalk. This enchanting bakery and restaurant offers an immersive dining experience where you can indulge in a variety of sweet treats, including elaborately decorated cakes and pastries. The menu also features savory options for breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

◆ New Restaurants at Disney's Polynesian Village Resort (Coming Soon)

Disney's Polynesian Village Resort is set to expand its dining options with new restaurants as part of its new Disney Vacation Club addition. Plans include both table-service and quick-service options. The Wailulu Bar & Grill is a casual restaurant that offers stunning views of the Seven Seas Lagoon and a menu with tropical cuisine including Sticky Pork Ribs and Grilled Chicken Teriyaki Sliders.

MAKING DINING Reservations ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Now that you're better informed, hopefully you've narrowed in on which restaurants you'd like to try during your visit to Disney World.

If you're hoping to dine at a table service restaurant, the only way to guarantee that you get to eat there is by securing a dining reservation. Reservations are highly recommended at every sit-down restaurant in the parks, resorts, and Disney Springs and you can begin making them 60 days prior to your check in day for the length of your trip (up to 10 days).

HOW TO MAKE DINING RESERVATIONS

So, set your alarms for early in the morning 60 days in advance and follow these steps to make your dining reservations:

Step One

OPTION 1: SEARCH AND RESERVE SPECIFIC RESTAURANTS

Search for the restaurant at which you would like to make a dining reservation either on your browser or in the My Disney Experience app. Then select "Reserve Dining" or "Check Availability." You'll then be asked to input your party size, select the date you'd like to dine, and pick an available time.

OPTION 2: SEARCH RESTAURANTS BY DATE AND TIME

On your browser go to "Things To Do" > "Make Reservations" or, if you're using the My Disney Experience app, click the "+" button at the bottom of the screen and select "Check Dining Availability." You'll then be prompted to select your party size, the date you plan to dine, and the time period you'd prefer (all day, morning, afternoon, or evening). This will bring up all of the dining reservations available for all restaurants across Walt Disney World for you to browse and book.

Step Two

CONFIRM YOUR DINING RESERVATIONS

Follow the prompts on the browser or app to input your contact information and a form of payment. Your card will only be charged if you fail to cancel your dining reservation 2 hours before and do not show up.

You'll receive a confirmation email with the dining reservation details and the reservation will be added to your plans in your My Disney Experience account. Be sure to keep copies of your confirmation in case there are any technical issues!

THE BEST TIME TO BOOK A RESERVATION

When it comes to booking dining reservations at Disney World, timing is everything. We recommend making your reservations as soon as your booking window opens 60 days prior to your check-in date. Disney World's official opening time for dining reservations is 6 AM ET. However, the system may release dining reservations even earlier so be prepared!

THE HARDEST DINING RESERVATIONS TO GET IN DISNEY WORLD

Every Disney World restaurant has its own unique theming and menu. And, it's these differences that make some restaurants more popular than others. When you're making dining reservations, you'll want to prioritize the order in which you make them by securing the most popular reservations first.

If any of these restaurants are on your must-dine list, be sure to snag them first when your dining reservation window opens.

MORE ON DISNEY

Dining Plans

If you've decided to purchase a Disney Dining Plan, it's important to know the differences to ensure you pick the right one and make full use of all the inclusions.

DISNEY DINING PLAN

The Disney Dining Plan is currently the "highest" meal plan option for Disney World vacations and is the only plan that allows you to dine at both table service and quick service restaurants during your vacation.

Inclusions:

- 1 Quick-Service Meal (per night of stay)
- 1 Table-Service Meal (per night of stay)
- 1 Snack/Nonalcoholic Drink (per night of stay)
- 1 Resort-Refillable Drink Mug (which can be refilled at any Disney World Resort hotel Quick-Service location at your leisure)

Cost: $94.28 per adult, per night (ages 10+); $29.69 per child, per night (ages 3 to 9)

QUICK SERVICE DINING PLAN

The Disney Quick-Service Dining Plan is the "lower" tier dining plan and is best for guests who do not plan to eat at table service restaurants (a.k.a. sit-down restaurants) every day of their stay.

Inclusions:

- 2 Quick-Service Meals (per night of stay)
- 1 Snack/Nonalcoholic Drink (per night of stay)
- 1 Resort-Refillable Drink Mug

Cost: $57.01 per adult, per night (ages 10+); $23.83 per child, per night (ages 3 to 9)

WHAT'S NOT INCLUDED WITH YOUR DISNEY DINING PLAN

It's important to note that the Disney Dining Plans don't necessarily pay for everything when it comes to dining in Disney World. Be sure to budget for the following as they are NOT included in the cost of the dining plans:

- Gratuity and tips
- Items that are more than a single serving (such as a box of doughnuts)
- Items (such as popcorn or drinks) that are served in a souvenir container
- Items considered to be merchandise (such as bottle toppers, glow cubes, and bottle straps)
- Special dining events offered at certain table-service locations

Also, note that certain character dining and signature dining restaurants cost TWO dining credits with the Disney Dining Plan. This means that you'll have one less credit to use during the length of your stay.

BEST AND WORST DINING PLAN SNACKS

When you purchase one of the Disney Dining Plans, each person gets one snack or nonalcoholic beverage per night of stay in addition to the meals. To make it easy to identify what counts as a snack, look for the DDP snack logo on menus and display cases. This purple and white symbol is an indicator that the item is eligible as a snack on the dining plan.

But, don't buy just any snack if you're hoping to maximize your dining plan! A snack credit is worth roughly $6, so you want to make sure you're using it on items that are more costly. Here are some snacks you should \(and shouldn't\) use your snack credits on in Disney World.

Buy these snacks:

- DOLE Whip from Aloha Isle ($5.99-$7.99)
- Gaston's Cinnamon Roll from Gaston's Tavern ($6.99)
- Sweet Cream Cheese Stuffed Pretzel from The Lunching Pad ($7.79)
- Any snacks from Les Halles Boulangerie Patisserie ($6.50+)
- Werther's Caramel Apple (or any other treat) from Karamell-Kuche in Germany Pavilion ($12.99)
- Blue and Green Milk from the Milk Stand in Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge ($8.99)
- Num Num Cookie at Neighborhood Bakery ($6.29)
- Wookiee Cookie from Backlot Express ($6.79)
- Baked Mac & Cheese dishes at Eight Spoon Cafe ($6.79)
- Night Blossom from Pongu Pongu ($6.79)
- Venti Starbucks drinks ($6+)

Avoid these snacks:

- Popcorn
- Soda
- Bottled Water
- Fresh Fruit
- Bagged Chips
- Coffee and tea (Starbucks is an exception)
- Pre-Packaged Candy
- Plain Bakery Items
- Extra Sauce
- Any snack priced under $6

And remember, you're also allowed to bring your own snacks into Disney World!

COFFEE IN DISNEY WORLD

Yes, we said Starbucks drinks can be purchased with your snack credits. So, if you can't imagine taking on the Disney Parks without a cup of coffee in hand, you're in luck! There are plenty of spots to get your caffeine fix in the parks and resorts.

If you're a Starbucks fanatic, you can find full-service locations at:

- Main Street Bakery at Magic Kingdom
- Connections Cafe at EPCOT
- The Trolley Car Cafe at Disney's Hollywood Studios
- Creature Comforts Coffee Shop at Disney's Animal Kingdom
- West Side by the Aerophile at Disney Springs

Or, you could give Joffrey's Coffee a try! Joffrey's is the official coffee of Walt Disney World and can be found all over the parks and Disney Springs. You'll also find Joffrey's coffee at most Disney World restaurants, including quick service restaurants, and inside the resort hotels.

ALCOHOL IN DISNEY WORLD

Well, since we've talked about coffee, you might be wondering about alcohol in Disney World. If you want to indulge in some adult beverages during your vacation, there are a few options:

1. Bring your own
2. Get it delivered to your hotel through a grocery delivery service
3. Purchase alcohol at Disney World quick service restaurants or bars/lounges

While the cost of alcoholic drinks tends to be much higher when you're buying directly from Disney compared to your local grocery store, there are some really unique bars and lounges that offer a great cocktail and beer menu throughout the parks and resorts. Plus, we definitely recommend getting a few drinks to try if you're visiting during any of the EPCOT festivals!

Just note that alcohol can only be ordered at table service restaurants in Magic Kingdom. All other Disney theme parks have multiple grab-and-go options if you're in the mood for a cocktail. Additionally, all of the Disney World Resort hotels have at least one bar that serves alcohol, and you can often find canned beverages at the quick service restaurants.

MOBILE ORDER

If you're looking to maximize your time in the parks and grab a bite to eat at one of the Quick Service restaurants, we suggest you use the Mobile Order feature in the My Disney Experience app.

All you have to do is download the app, find the restaurant, select your pick-up time, and place your order—all while enjoying everything else the parks have to offer. Once your pick-up window opens, you'll select the tab that you are on your way and your food will be prepared and ready when you arrive.

DECIDE WHAT YOU Want to Do & See ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

Now that you've decided where you are going to stay and where/what you are going to eat, there's more fun to be had planning what you're going to see and do during your Disney World vacation.

DECIDE WHICH PARKS YOU'LL VISIT AND ON WHAT DAYS

Whether this will be your first or 50th time visiting Disney World, you're probably planning on spending most of your time in the parks. So, you'll need to plan out where you're going and when!

It's important to check the park hours prior to making your plans so that you don't encounter any surprises on the day of your visit. For example, in the fall and winter months, Magic Kingdom closes early for special ticketed events and you'll want to know about those in advance!

Certain days of the week also tend to be better for visiting specific parks based on crowd patterns. Magic Kingdom is typically less crowded on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, as many visitors head there first, making Mondays and weekends busier. EPCOT sees lighter crowds on weekdays, especially Tuesdays through Thursdays, as weekends attract locals for its festivals. Disney's Animal Kingdom is often less busy midweek, and Disney's Hollywood Studios tends to be quieter on Fridays. Disney Springs is ideal for a Monday or Thursday visit, avoiding the weekend rush. And, a resort day works well on a Sunday or Saturday, allowing for relaxation during the busiest park days. Crowd calendars from third-party websites can also help fine-tune these decisions based on seasonal trends.

But, which parks should you prioritize if you're only visiting for a few days? Or, what parks should you go to more than once if you have an extended stay? While all four theme parks are designed with both young and old in mind, here are the parks that you may want to spend more time in based on who you're traveling with:

- ♦ Best Park for Kids: Magic Kingdom
- ♦ Best Park for Teens:
Disney's Hollywood Studios
- ♦ Best Park for Adults: EPCOT

PLAN A BASIC ITINERARY FOR EACH DAY

Once you've got your parks scheduled, it's time to plan a basic itinerary for each day. While we don't recommend having a minute-to-minute schedule (flexibility is important!), it's good to do some prep work so that you know what to prioritize.

ATTRACTIONS AND ENTERTAINMENT

Spend some time reviewing the height requirements for all the attractions in each park if you're traveling with younger children and decide which rides are must-do's for you and your family.

Of course, there's lots to do besides the rides as well. From shows, parades, character meet & greets, photo-ops, and various other experiences, decide what's important to you during your trip.

Some of the best rides, parades, nighttime spectaculars, and shows in each park include:

ADDITIONAL TIPS TO PLAN Your Perfect Day ★ ★ ★ ★

When planning out how you're going to spend your days in the theme parks, there are a few other things that you should keep in mind. From remembering to snag your spot in the virtual queue for select rides to deciding whether you want to purchase Lightning Lane passes, these tips can really help you make the most of your days.

VIRTUAL QUEUE

While almost every ride in Disney World offers a regular standby line, select attractions do not and instead utilize a virtual queue system. The virtual queue is designed to minimize your wait time at the newest attractions in the park by reserving your spot in line.

Currently, two attractions use a free virtual queue:

- Tiana's Bayou Adventure at Magic Kingdom
- Guardians of the Galaxy: Cosmic Rewind at EPCOT

You'll need to join the "line" through the My Disney Experience App during one of the two enrollment windows at 7AM or 1PM on the day of your visit. If you are taking advantage of the Extended Evening Hours Deluxe Resort benefit, there will be an additional window at 6 PM.

Here's how to join:

- 5 minutes before the enrollment window opens, open the My Disney Experience App and scroll down on the home screen to "Request Access with Virtual Queue." Then click "Join Virtual Queue" for the ride that you want.
- Click "Confirm Your Party" and make sure you have included anyone who wants to ride in your party.
- Refresh the app when the enrollment window opens and click "Join Virtual Queue".
- If successful, you'll receive a confirmation with your boarding group number and the approximate call back time.
- Whenever your boarding group is called, you'll have an hour to make your way over to the ride.

It is important to note that guests can join the 7 AM queue from anywhere, but you will need to be in the specified park to join the 1 PM queue.

EARLY THEME PARK ENTRY

If you're staying at a Disney World Resort hotel, one of the best perks is extra time in the parks! So, be sure to set your alarm to take advantage of the lower wait times for rides during Early Theme Park Entry. We recommend arriving at least 60 minutes prior to the official park opening to get the most out of these extra 30 minutes every morning.

If you are staying on Disney property, the transportation will begin running about an hour before your Early Entry time, or 1.5 hours before the official park opening.

Early Theme Park Entry is one of the best ways to ride Disney's most popular attractions with little to no lines. So, DON'T waste these precious 30-minutes waiting in line for coffee. Instead, pick a ride on your to-do list that's popular and head there first! Then, if you have some extra time, hop in line for another nearby popular attraction. You'll likely only have time to get on 1-2 rides, so choose wisely!

Here are some of the rides to prioritize in each park:

Magic Kingdom

- TRON: Lightcycle / Run
- Seven Dwarfs Mine Train
- Space Mountain
- Peter Pan's Flight

EPCOT

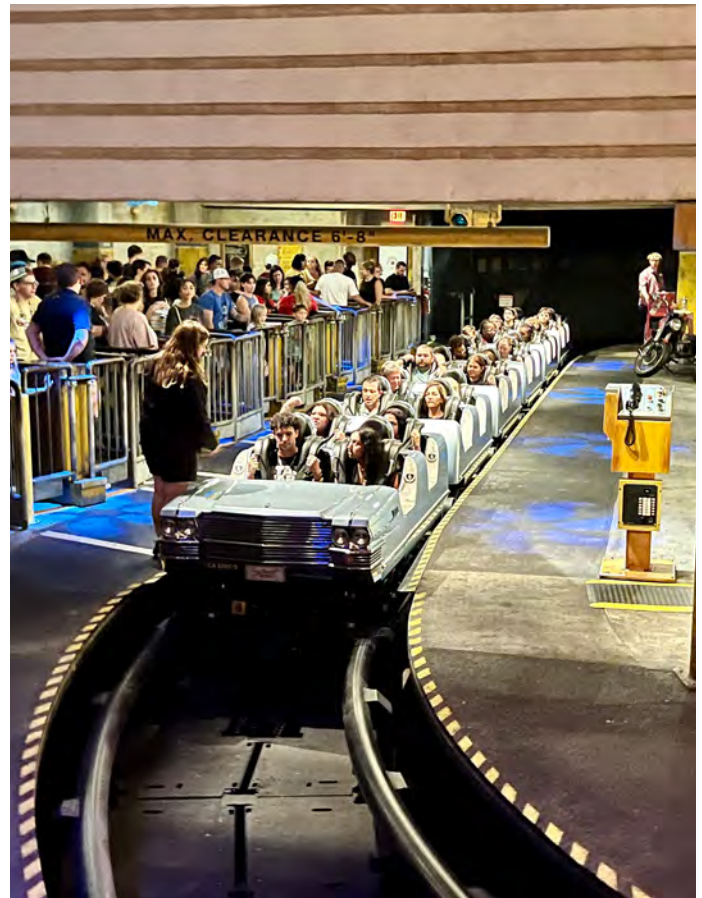

- Frozen Ever After
- Remy's Ratatouille Adventure
- Test Track
- Soarin'

Disney's Hollywood Studios

- Star Wars: Rise of the Resistance
- Slinky Dog Dash
- Mickey & Minnie's Runaway Railway
- Tower of Terror
- Rock 'n' Roller Coaster

Disney's Animal Kingdom

- Avatar: Flight of Passage
 - Na'vi River Journey

SINGLE RIDER

One of the best ways to save time and avoid long lines is by utilizing single-rider lines. These lines are often much shorter than the regular lines and are a great option if you don't mind splitting up your group. Currently, a single rider line is consistently offered at Rock 'n' Roller Coaster, Millennium Falcon: Smugglers Run, Test Track, and Expedition Everest. Star Wars: Rise of the Resistance and Remy's Ratatouille Adventure sometimes have single rider lines as well.

RIDER SWITCH

Rider Switch enables those traveling with little ones who don't meet the height requirements of an attraction to still ride by taking turns. One parent waits in line and rides the attraction while the other parent waits with the child. When the first parent is finished riding, they switch with the second parent, allowing them to skip the line and ride the attraction without waiting in the regular queue.

To use Rider Switch, simply go to the attraction's entrance and let the Cast Member know that you'd like to use the service. They'll provide you with instructions and direct you to the designated waiting area.

LIGHTNING LANE PASSES

Lightning Lane Multi Pass and Lightning Lane Single Passes are the new way to skip the lines at the most popular attractions in the Disney Parks. But, unlike its predecessor FastPass+, it now costs money to gain access to this perk. Of note, if you've heard or read about Disney Genie+ in the past, this Lightning Lane Multi Pass is its replacement as of July 2024.

Lightning Lane Multi Pass allows you to skip the line at the majority of the rides and attractions throughout all four Disney World theme parks. Prices vary by date and theme park, but you can expect to pay between $15-$35 per person on top of your park ticket on the days that you opt to buy Multi Pass.

Each theme park currently has one to two attractions that are not included in the Lightning Lane Multi Pass and are instead a separate cost if you'd like the opportunity to skip the line. Known as Lightning Lane Single Passes, you can choose to purchase them with or without the purchase of Lightning Lane Multi Pass. Prices for Single Passes vary by date and attraction but you can expect to pay between $12-$25 per person, per attraction.

Both Lightning Lane Multi Pass and Single Passes can be booked prior to your trip, and we highly recommend doing so. Disney World Resort hotel guests can purchase and make their Lightning Lane selections 7 days prior to their check-in day at 7AM ET for the duration of their trip. And, all other guests can purchase and make their selections 3 days prior to their visit at 7AM ET.

To purchase, open up the My Disney Experience app when your booking window opens and select "Purchase" under the Lightning Lane Multi Pass and Lightning Lane Single Pass banner. You can then view all available times for all participating rides and attractions AND make all of your selections for the entire length of your stay before you pay.

Also, brand new as of October 30, 2024 is Lightning Lane Premier Pass. This all-new premier pass eliminates the need to schedule Lightning Lane return times at attractions and gives you a one-time entry to every Lightning Lane attraction in one park for one day, including the most popular rides.

FINAL PREPARATION

for Your Vacation ✨ ✨ ✨

Now that you know where you're going to stay, what you're going to eat, and what you're going to see and do, the hard part is out of the way. So, let the countdown to your Walt Disney World vacation begin! As you make final preparations for your trip, these are some of the most important things to keep in mind.

DOWNLOAD MY DISNEY EXPERIENCE APP

The My Disney Experience app is a mobile application designed to help you plan your vacation, get up-to-date information about the theme parks, and so much more. The app is available for download on both Apple App Store and Google Play.

While you can certainly go to Disney World without it, most guests find that it's nearly impossible to navigate the parks and keep all of their plans straight without the app on their phone. So, we recommend downloading the app and becoming familiar with it before your vacation. The app is free, so there's really no reason not to have it!

In the app, you can:

- Purchase and manage Lightning Lane Multi Pass and Lightning Lane Single Pass Selections.
- Mobile order food.
- Make dining reservations.
- Check into your hotel.
- Open your hotel room door.
- Access, purchase, and download your Disney PhotoPass images.
- Get theme park information including park maps, current ride wait times, character meet-and-greet locations, and theme park hours.
- See when the next Disney bus will arrive at your hotel.
- Mobile check out at merchandise locations.
- Activate MagicBands.
- Get recommendations for where to eat, what rides have the lowest wait times, and more.
- Join the virtual queue for select attractions.
- Use as your ticket to get into the park.
- Contact guest services including concierge at your hotel.
- Track where you parked your car.

CONSIDER PURCHASING MAGICBANDS

MagicBands (and MagicBand+) are wristbands that are designed to be worn throughout the entirety of your Disney World vacation. They make your visit a bit easier in more ways than one and are a convenient and innovative way to access a variety of features during your stay. With a MagicBand, you can enter the theme parks, get into your hotel room, redeem Lightning Lane selections, make purchases, and so much more.

If you're staying at a Walt Disney World Resort hotel, we recommend purchasing your MagicBands in advance to secure up to 50% off the accessory for your entire party. Once you arrive at Disney World, you'll have to pay full price (which ranges from $19.99 to $50+ depending on the design).

While MagicBands are not required to visit Walt Disney World, they are certainly convenient. It eliminates the need to fumble around with tickets, money, etc. while in the parks.

PACKING

As your vacation dates approach, it's time to pack! Be sure to check the weather forecast for Central Florida before you start packing so that you can be prepared for the heat, rain, or even the cold depending on when you're visiting.

There's a lot to keep track of and you don't want to forget anything. So, use the included packing checklist to help ensure you don't leave something behind!

WALT DISNEY WORLD

Transportation

GETTING TO WDW

Your Disney World vacation is finally here!

How you get to Disney World will largely depend on how far away you live. If you're traveling by car, getting to Disney World is as simple as putting the address of your resort hotel into your preferred maps app on your smartphone and clicking go. However, getting to Disney World is a bit more complicated if you're flying into the Orlando International Airport \(MCO\).

Disney's free transportation system between the airport and resorts (Disney's Magical Express) is no longer available. So, you'll need to find a way to get to your hotel...and it likely won't be free. Luckily, whether you're looking for the cheapest way, the fastest way, or the most convenient way to get from the airport to your hotel, there are a lot of options available.

MEARS CONNECT DRIVEN BY SUNSHINE

MEARS Connect Driven By Sunshine is a shuttle service that takes guests between the Orlando airport and Disney World hotels (including some other area hotels) for a fee. This is similar to the experience previously offered on Disney's Magical Express, but a fee is charged.

Cost: Standard Service – $17.60 per adult and $14.30 per child one way; Express Service – $250 round trip (for up to 4 people), $55 extra per person for groups of 5+

RIDESHARE OR TAXI

Rideshare apps (like Uber and Lyft) and taxis service all of the terminals at MCO. Just remember to select a car that is big enough to fit your traveling party, along with ALL your luggage.

Cost: $60-$120 for your ride each way

CAR RENTALS

Getting a rental car at the Orlando airport and driving yourself to your hotel provides you with the most flexibility. Just choose your favorite car rental company, reserve your car online, and follow the signage at the airport for pick-up of your car.

Cost: $25-$65+ per day

PRIVATE CAR SERVICE

Several private car services currently operate out of MCO to take you to and from Disney World. This includes Happy Limo, Quicksilver Tours, Tiffany Towncar, and FL Tours. They will usually greet you at the baggage claim area, assist with your luggage, and provide car seats and booster seats if needed.

Cost: $100-$300 round trip

GETTING AROUND WDW

Now that you've made it to Walt Disney World, the next thing to do is decide how you'll get around the property during your stay.

Throughout Walt Disney World, there are four convenient ways to get around including the monorail, bus, water taxi, and Disney Skyliner. And, the great thing about all of them is that they're FREE to all guests – even if you aren't staying at a Disney hotel!

To use the Disney transportation system, all you need to do is wait at the designated transportation area for your desired mode of transportation. There are signs near all of the exits and entrances to guide you, or you can ask a Cast Member for help. Once you board, you can sit back, relax, and leave the driving to someone else.

Now, it's important to know that not all Disney transportation is created equally. There are some key differences between the four different transportation types and where you're coming from/where you're going will determine which type you take. Let's dive into each one.

BUSES

Disney buses are the most common way to get around Disney World. Bus transportation is available at all of the Disney hotels to take guests to Magic Kingdom, EPCOT, Disney's Hollywood Studios, Disney's Animal Kingdom, the two water parks, and Disney Springs (unless another mode of transportation is available).

The buses run frequently, with service starting one hour before park opening and ending one hour after park closing.

MONORAIL

The monorail is the most iconic way to get around Disney World. It currently operates on three different routes:

- The Magic Kingdom Resort Loop: stops at Disney's Contemporary Resort, the Transportation and Ticket Center, Disney's Polynesian Village Resort, Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa, and Magic Kingdom.
- EPCOT Loop: stops at the Transportation and Ticket Center and EPCOT.
- Express Loop: runs between the Transportation and Ticket Center and Magic Kingdom with no stops in between.

OTHER WAYS TO GET AROUND DISNEY WORLD

WALKING PATHS

Depending on where you're heading, you could skip Disney transportation entirely by using one of the many walking paths that connects select resorts to certain theme parks and Disney Springs. Just follow signage or ask a Cast Member for directions.

Currently, walking paths are available from:

- Magic Kingdom to Disney's Contemporary Resort (5 mins), Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa (10-15 mins), Disney's Polynesian Village Resort (15-20 mins), and the Transportation and Ticket Center (20-30 mins)
- EPCOT to Disney's BoardWalk Resort (5 mins), Disney's Yacht & Beach Club (5-10 mins), Walt Disney World Swan & Dolphin Hotel (15 mins), and Walt Disney World Swan Reserve (15 mins)
- Disney's Hollywood Studios to Disney's BoardWalk Resort (25 mins), Disney's Yacht & Beach Club (25-30 mins), Walt Disney World Swan & Dolphin Hotel (20 mins), and Walt Disney World Swan Reserve (20 mins)
- Disney Springs to Disney's Old Key West Resort (20 mins) and Disney's Saratoga Springs Resort & Spa (15 mins)

MINNIE VANS

Minnie Vans are Disney's exclusive rideshare system operated through Lyft. Each Minnie Van is driven by a Disney Cast Member and can take you anywhere on Disney property for an additional cost. You can access it through the Lyft app on your smartphone.

While these function similarly to a traditional rideshare service, you may want to opt for Minnie Vans over Lyft or Uber if you're in a rush. They are guaranteed to be nearby and often have access to better pick up and drop off locations at the parks and resorts. However, just keep in mind that pricing for Minnie Vans may be more than other rideshare services in the area.

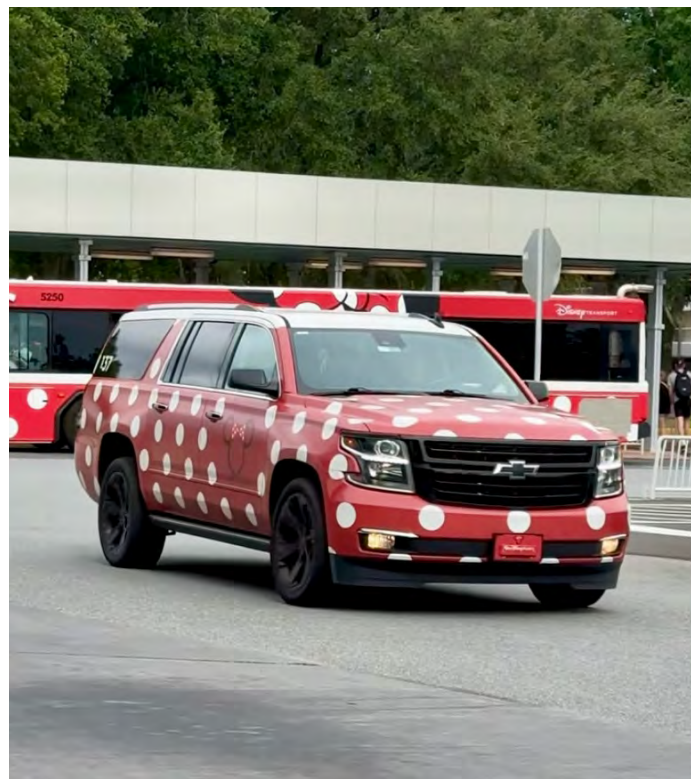

RIDESHARE

If you prefer to have more control over your transportation, you can use ride-sharing services like Uber or Lyft. Each theme park has a designated pick-up and drop-off location for these rideshare services near the park entrance.

You may not want to rely on rideshares for transportation throughout the entirety of your trip, however. These services are an additional cost and pricing can be high during busier times. It can also be more challenging if you need car seats.

CAR RENTALS

If you're planning to visit other attractions in the Orlando area or need more flexibility, you may prefer to rent a car to travel around Disney World. Major car rental companies have locations at the Orlando International Airport, which is just a short distance from Disney World. As mentioned previously, all Disney Resort guests get free parking at the theme parks and your hotel.

EXPERT DISNEY WORLD

Tips & Tricks

During your visit to Walt Disney World, these are some additional tips and tricks to keep in mind to ensure you have the best day(s) ever!

WHAT TO DO IF IT RAINS

It's not uncommon to experience some rain during your Disney trip, especially if you're visiting over the summer. But, don't fret! Rain showers and thunderstorms don't usually last very long in Central Florida. Here's what you can do to ensure that a little bit of inclement weather doesn't ruin your park day:

- Don't leave the park! Most people tend to leave when the rain starts which can mean that you'll face fewer crowds once the storm clears.
- Head to an indoor ride or show to pass the time.
- Stop for a snack break at any of the quick service restaurants in the park.
- Look out for special entertainment. Magic Kingdom usually hosts the Rainy Day Parade if it's still raining when parade time rolls around.
- Check for activities at your hotel. Cast Members are often out with crafts, games, and more in the resort lobby.

And, don't forget to pack some rain gear just in case! An umbrella, poncho, and change of socks can go a long way in saving your park days.

DON'T OVERSCHEDULE YOURSELF

While it's important to have an idea of what you want to do during your vacation, it's important to leave room for spontaneity. Whether it's stumbling upon a character you didn't know you could meet, a ride that you didn't know you'd want to go on, or just the need for a break back at the hotel, don't over-schedule your days.

BEST PLACE TO WATCH FIREWORKS

If you're watching the fireworks at Magic Kingdom, the best place to view them is from the middle of Main Street U.S.A. since the show involves special projection effects all the way down the street that you'll miss if you stand too close to the castle.

For EPCOT's show, try watching from the bridge between the UK and France pavilions for the best view.

You may also want to purchase a Fireworks Dining Package for any of Disney's nighttime entertainment which includes a guaranteed viewing area.

And, if you want to avoid the parks altogether, you can view Magic Kingdom fireworks from locations at Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa, from the beaches at Disney's Polynesian Village Resort, and California Grill at Disney's Contemporary Resort (with a dining reservation). EPCOT fireworks can be viewed from the bridge between Disney's BoardWalk and Disney's Beach Club.

CAR LOCATOR

The My Disney Experience App has a useful Car Locator feature that can help you keep track of where you parked your car at the Disney Parks. Just go to the Sandwich Menu at the bottom of the app, scroll down, and select "Car Locator" from the options. Then follow the prompts to add your parking lot and row number information.

BE PREPARED TO WALK

Remember Walt Disney World is massive and that means that there's a lot of walking. You can expect to log at least 10,000 steps a day, most likely more, making your way through the parks and resorts. So, be sure to wear comfortable shoes and socks!

BE FLEXIBLE

With all the planning that goes into preparing for a Disney World vacation, it can be easy to feel like the stars must be aligned to have the perfect trip. But, there are so many things you can't plan for with a Disney vacation that it's important to remain flexible and not be tied down to a minute-by-minute schedule.
